

Defence Joint Health Command Health Centre ACT and Holsworthy Health Centre NSW

The $39 million Lump Sum project includes construction services for a new health centre at Duntroon ACT and major refurbishment of the existing Health Centre at Holsworthy. Kane was awarded the project in late 2018 and the project is part of a national rollout of Defence health centres across Australia.

The facilities will provide primary health and associated health care to Australian Defence force personnel around Australia.

Duntroon is forecast for completion in August 2020.

Holsworthy is forecast for Completion in December 2019
