

Eternity Playhouse

Kane Constructions was appointed to transform the Burton Street Tabernacle via the creation of a contemporary 200 seat performing arts space, a new foyer and a gallery, cafe and bar. Designed by Tonkin Zulaikha Greer Architects, the $8 million restoration of the Tabernacle has injected new life back into this unique building creating a community and cultural hub in the heart of East Sydney.

Works included the construction of new extended foyer connecting Burton Street to the Basement Hall, new addition to accommodate dressing rooms and performers facilities at lower ground level, backstage area including loading dock/workshop area at ground floor, offices at Level 1, a goods/passenger lift and rooftop plant, theatre fit-out including seating, control room and staging, retention and refurbishment of the significant heritage features of the existing building and fit out including theatre box office, cafe and bar including commercial kitchen, and public amenities.

Kane Constructions Pty Ltd
kane.com.au

Client

City of Sydney

Consultants

Tonkin Zulaikha Greer Architects

Location

New South Wales

Value

$8M

Awards

2014 Master Builders Association of NSW Winner
NSW MBA Excellence in Construction Awards -
Adaptive Re-use of an Historic building $5M to $10M 2014 Australian Institute of Architects, National The Lachlan Macquarie Award for Heritage
2014 Australian Institute of Architects, NSW Chapter
Greenway Award for Heritage Architecture