

'Yarralumla', Government House Canberra

Refurbishment of the suite that was occupied by the Queen and Prince Phillip during their 1990 visit to Australia, as part of a staged redevelopment of Yarralumla.

Site works included demolition and removal of existing buildings; provision of a new temporary kitchen and new in-ground services.

Works were carried out with minimum disruption to the Governor-General and house staff.

Kane Constructions Pty Ltd
kane.com.au

Client

Office of the Governor-General

Consultants

Lovell Chen

Value

$1M